On Saturday August 9th at 7:00 PM Webster Masonic Lodge is holding program entitled "The Immortal Soul". Belief in the Immortality of the Soul is a landmark of Freemasonry. William Edwards, Independent Film Producer and Past Master of Webster Masonic Lodge will lead a discussion and Q&A about "The Immortal Soul" which includes a special screening of the award winning independent film, "Please, talk with me". The film is an authentic re-telling of the ten week extreme haunting that occurred at SUNY Geneseo in early 1985. Honored guest, Mr. Christopher DiCesare, key witness to the C2D1 Haunting will be in attendance and present a lecture about his experiences and also participate in the Q&A following the film. The public is encouraged to attend and a $10.00 donation is requested to help support Webster Masonic Lodge. The lodge is located at 30 Orchard Street in Webster. NY.

For more information about the film visit www.ptwmthefilm.com or www.facebook.com/pleasetalk You can contact the event sponsor, CITA Productions at wedwards@citaproductions.biz with any questions about the program for the evening.
